From Beech Class

Beech Class

Beech class have really enjoyed learning about Howard Carter's discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb. They are writing newspaper reports about his discovery using direct and reported speech.

The children have also created their own pharaoh faces in the style of Tutankhamun's golden mask.

Well done to the rugby squad who trained and played friendly matches for the full 90 minutes at Chenderit yesterday. Fred, Bella, Elanor, Isla-Mae and Darcie were great ambassadors for Greatworth and scored several tries. It was Darcie's first time at Chenderit and I am sure she will be back for more!
