

As mathematicians we will:

- Add and subtract whole numbers and decimals
- Create decimal sequences
- Multiply and divide decimals by 10 /100/ 1000
- Measure angles in degrees
- Use a protractor to draw angles accurately
- Angles on a straight line/ around a point
- Revise position & direction

As musicians we will:

- Develop singing technique and actions to create own Viking battle song

As PE specialists we will:

- Focus on field and track activities
- Create a musical theatre performance for a public audience

As design and technology experts we will:

- Program a navigation tool to produce a multifunctional device for trekkers.
- Combine 3D objects to form a complete product in CAD 3D modelling software.

As biologists we will:

- Consider the changes that a human experiences at each stage of their life cycle
- Explore the gestation period of a human baby
- Consider the relationship between gestation periods of other animals and their life span
- know key facts about puberty and the changing adolescent body, including physical and emotional changes.
- know about menstrual wellbeing including the key facts about the menstrual cycle.
- Understand how a baby is conceived and born (Y6 only)

As global citizens we will:

- Understand how the United Kingdom compares to other European countries

As IT specialists we will:

- Learn about the history of computers
- Create and edit sound recordings for a specific purpose

As geographers we will:

- Name and locate countries in the region of Scandinavian
- Explore the climate in Scandinavian countries
- Use topographic maps to understand the physical geography of Scandinavia
- Identify how human geography can contribute to a national identity
- Consider similarities and differences between Scandinavia and the United Kingdom

As writers we will:

- Write with a strong sense of audience and purpose
- Produce a persuasive piece of writing for a Scandinavian country
- Produce a piece of writing in response to a Shakespearean text

As readers we will:

- Read a range of quality texts from quality authors including poetry, stories and non-fiction texts
- Develop our vocabulary range and our ability to derive meaning from a text

As linguists we will:

- Use family and relations vocabulary
- Describe likes and dislikes; ages; birthdays and looks

Change